In the matter of:

SPORTS DIMENSIONS, INC., a North Carolina corporation,

and

MARC HUBBARD and JANE DOE
HUBBARD, husband and wife,

Respondents.

DOCKET NO. S-20665A-09-0154

TEMPORARY ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

NOTICE: THIS ORDER IS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

EACH RESPONDENT HAS 20 DAYS TO REQUEST A HEARING

EACH RESPONDENT HAS 30 DAYS TO FILE AN ANSWER

The Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") alleges that respondents SPORTS DIMENSIONS, INC. and MARC HUBBARD are engaging in or are about to engage in acts and practices that constitute violations of A.R.S. § 44-1801, et seq., the Arizona Securities Act ("Securities Act"), and that the public welfare requires immediate action.

I.

JURISDICTION

1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act.

II.

RESPONDENTS

2. SPORTS DIMENSIONS, INC. ("SDI") was, at all relevant times, a North Carolina corporation that was incorporated in January of 2002 and is located in South Carolina.

3. MARC HUBBARD ("HUBBARD") was, at all relevant times, the president and CEO of SDI and resides outside of Arizona.

4. SDI and HUBBARD may be referred to collectively as "Respondents".

5. JANE DOE HUBBARD ("DOE HUBBARD") was, at all relevant times, the spouse of Respondent HUBBARD. DOE HUBBARD is joined in this action under A.R.S. § 44-2031(C) solely for purposes of determining the liability of the marital community. DOE HUBBARD may be referred to as "Respondent Spouse."

6. At all relevant times, Respondent HUBBARD had been acting for his own benefit and for the benefit or in furtherance of the marital community.

III.

FACTS

7. HUBBARD claims that SDI is a "regional company specializing in the Concert Business" which has been in business for over "twelve successful" years. HUBBARD through SDI is seeking funds from investors to provide working capital for concert promotions.

8. In or about February of 2009, SDI and HUBBARD sent unsolicited information to an Arizona resident offering an investment in SDI. If investors purchased the promissory notes, Series 2009-A Convertible Corporate Notes ("Note or Notes"), the investment would yield 30% annually and it was guaranteed. Further, the letter also stated that investors could triple their investment within 18 months. SDI and HUBBARD represented that this investment was "virtually recession proof."

9. Presently, SDI and HUBBARD operate a website, www.sdiconcerts.com, which allows access to the offering documents to only "accredited" investors who register for a password.

1 To access the complete website, offerees must complete a form that represents they are accredited
2 and require the offerees to provide their contact information. Once the online form is completed,
3 the offerees then receive a password to enter the website. With the password, the offerees are able
4 to view the Private Placement Memorandum ("PPM") for the Notes.

5 10. The website does allow access to a summary that is available to anyone who
6 accesses the website. The summary is similar to one of the documents mailed to an Arizona
7 offeree and includes details of the offering.

8 11. The PPM is dated January 15, 2009 has an expiration date of January 15, 2010.
9 According to the "Summary of Private Placement", SDI and HUBBARD are seeking to raise
10 $10,000,000. The minimum purchase amount for an investor is one Note for the purchase price of 11 $10,000. The maturity date of the Note is twelve months with a return of $13,000. The Note is 12 convertible into Series A Common Shares at $2.00 a share.

13 12. According to the PPM, the funds raised through the sale of the Notes will be used
14 for working capital. The materials sent to the Arizona offeree and on the website further indicate
15 that the funds raised from the sale of the Notes will be used to "book up to three major North
16 American tours in each of the next three years."

17 13. Although the general solicitation that was mailed to an Arizona resident and the
18 information on SDI's website represents that the investment "Yields 30% Annually Guaranteed,"
19 the PPM contradicts this statement. The PPM specifically states that "there can be no guarantee
20 that the business will be profitable to the extent anticipated." Further, the PPM states "there can be 21 no guarantee that the results shown in the enclosed projections will be realized in whole or in part."
22 Moreover, the PPM states that SDI does not "guarantee or warrant the projected results."

23 14. The PPM states that SDI is a "development stage company formed in 2006" and "is 24 relatively new and as such has no substantial long-term operating history." Yet, elsewhere in the 25 PPM, SDI is represented as having eleven years of event promotion achieving an average return on 26 investment exceeding 30%. Also in the PPM, there is a representation that SDI was incorporated

1 in 2002 and has an "11-year operating history." In materials sent to an Arizona offeree and also
2 listed on the SDI website, Respondents represent that SDI sponsored its first musical concert in
3 1986 and has posted a profit in each year of operation.

4 15. The PPM states that there has been no other prior execution of a securities offering
5 by SDI. However, on September 26, 2006, the California Department of Corporations issued a
6 Desist and Refrain Order against Sports Dimensions, Inc., Sports Dimensions, Inc. dba SDI and
7 Marc Hubbard. The basis of the Desist and Refrain Order was that SDI and HUBBARD offered to 8 sell promissory notes and investment contracts through general solicitation utilizing postings on its
9 website and through other means. As described in the Desist and Refrain, SDI and HUBBARD
10 promised investors a 20% quarterly rate of return on their investments. SDI and Hubbard
11 represented that the investments were secured by box office receipts and a surety bond issued by 12 Tri-Point Holdings.

13 16. In the present action, the subscription agreement states that the Notes are secured by 14 a surety bond issued by "Liberty Reinsurance [sic]" as well as concert tickets sales.

15 17. The California Desist and Refrain Order issued against SDI and HUBBARD was 16 not disclosed in the PPM or the subscription agreement.

17 18. In addition to the offer involved with the California Desist and Refrain Order, in 18 July of 2002, Respondents filed a Form D with the Securities and Exchange Commission
19 indicating Respondents intention to sell securities.

20 19. SDI and HUBBARD did not prominently and conspicuously indicate on the cover
21 page of any offering document or on the subscription agreement (a) that the securities are not being
22 offered to persons in Arizona, or (b) in which specific states, other than Arizona, the securities are
23 being offered. Further, SDI and HUBBARD did not state that the offer for sale is not specifically
24 directed to any person in Arizona by, or on behalf of, the issuer; and no sales of the issuer's securities
25 are made in Arizona as a direct or indirect result of the Internet offer for sale.

1 operate as a fraud or deceit upon offerees and investors. Respondents' conduct includes, but is not
2 limited to, the following:

3 a) SDI and HUBBARD failed to disclose to offerees the Desist and Refrain
4 Order issued by the California Department of Corporations for a previous securities offering.

5 b) SDI and HUBBARD misrepresented to offerees that there had been "no
6 other execution of a securities offering" by SDI when, in fact, Respondents conducted a
7 securities offering in 2006 resulting in a Desist and Refrain Order issued by California and
8 Respondents filed a Form D with the Securities and Exchange Commission in 2002 related to a
9 securities offering.

10 c) SDI and HUBBARD misrepresented to offerees that the investment was 11 guaranteed.

12 d) SDI and HUBBARD misrepresented to offerees the nature of the business
13 experience and history.

14 27. This conduct violates A.R.S. § 44-1991.

15 VII.
